

CONTENTS

UNDERSTANDING POLITICAL THEORY

Chapter 1: Introduction to Politics

- I. What is Politics?
- II. Theorizing the 'Political' Questions

Chapter 2. Introduction to Political Theory

- I. What is Theory?
- II. What is 'Political'?
- III. What is Political Theory?
- IV. Why do we need Political Theory?
- V. Evolution of Political Theory

Chapter 3. Approaches to Political Theory

- I. Historical Approach
- II. Normative Approach
- III. Empirical Approach

Chapter 4. Behaviouralism, Post-behaviouralism and Decline and Resurgence of Political Theory:

- I. Behaviouralism
- II. Post-Behaviouralism
- III. Decline and Resurgence of Political Theory

5. Traditions of Political Theory

- I. Liberal Tradition
- II. Marxist Tradition
- III. Anarchist Tradition
- IV. Conservative Tradition

6. Contemporary Perspectives in Political Theory

- I Feminism
- II. Multiculturalism
- III. Postmodernism

7. Political Theory and Practice-I

- I. Citizenship
- II. Types of State

8. Theory and Practice-II

- 1. Democracy-The history of an Idea
- 11. Direct Democracy
- III. Liberal Democracy
- IV. Procedural Democracy and its Critique
- V. Deliberative Democracy

9. Debates

- 1. Democracy and Difference
- II. Representation and Participation
- III. Democracy and Development

10. The Idea of Political Community: Political Obligation

- 1. The Idea of Political Community
- II. Political Obligation